PRAHA 1964

In submitting this work to the press I should like to record my gratitude to my father, Mr. H. A. Scott of Edinburgh, who first introduced me to Morris's personality and work and who has been invaluable in obtaining material for me, to Professor Štěpaník of the J. E. Purkyně University in Brno for advice and to Professor Zatočil of the same University for kindly helping me in matters relating to the Icelandic sagas.

Jessie Kocmanová.
