

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This book draws on my doctoral thesis based on the research of religious practices in the Japanese mountains. My advisor, doc. PhDr. Luboš Bělka CSc., was a great support during my research and I would like to express my gratitude to him. I have benefited greatly from the critical advice of my Japanese professor Yamanaka Hiroshi from the University of Tsukuba.

I would like to thank the historian Fukue Mitsuru for his expertise on the cult of Tateyama and his kind guidance through the village of Ashikuraji. I must also extend my gratitude to researchers at the Tateyama Museum of Toyama for their assistance.

The second year of research was made possible by the generous support of the Rotary Yoneyama Memorial Foundation, particularly the Koga Higashi Rotary Club and all its members.

I am also grateful for the help of members of the Nikkō Shugendō Sannōin group based in Kanuma, who led me through experiences in the Nikkō mountains, as well as for their generous hospitality and for taking time to answer my questions. I am also indebted to a representative of Dewa Sanzan Shrine who was kind enough to answer my questions and provided hospitality on my visit to Dewa Sanzan.

My final and special thanks are reserved for Carlos for his support. Without him this work would not have been possible.
