

CONTENT

Introduction .....	9
Field work .....	13
Conventions .....	15
Structure of the book .....	15
Chapter I: The afterlife .....	19
Early textual traces .....	20
Buddhist hells .....	21
Returners from death in the Nihon ryōiki .....	24
The Scripture on Jizō and the Ten Kings .....	28
Picturing the damned .....	32
Scenes from the Scripture on Jizō and the Ten Kings .....	33
The Illustrated stories of Hell and the Stories of Hungry Ghosts .....	34
Chapter II: The Tateyama Mandala .....	41
What type of mandala is the Tateyama Mandala? .....	42
The world of the Tateyama Mandala .....	45
The story of the hunter .....	47
The Realms of transmigration .....	50
Suffering in the hells .....	53
Chapter III: The Tateyama cult .....	57
Aspirations for rebirth in Heavens .....	57
Unblessed women .....	59
The Cloth Bridge Consecration rite .....	60
Uba .....	65
Sustaining strategies .....	68
Vanishing of the cult .....	73
Chapter IV: In the name of religious-cultural heritage .....	75
The case of Tateyama .....	76
Continuing practices in Ashikuraji .....	76
Re-enactment of the Cloth Bridge rite .....	84
The Japanese sense of nature .....	95
Mediating Shugendō .....	99
Retreat .....	103

Chapter V: Religious practices in the consumer society .....	107
Culinary curiosity and healthy lifestyle .....	110
Importance of body and senses .....	115
Benefits – riyaku 利益 .....	119
Mediatization .....	122
Choose your experience .....	123
Conclusions .....	129
Appendix 1: Original versions of translations from Japanese .....	133
Appendix 2: The Cloth Bridge Consecration rite .....	135
Appendix 3: Retreat .....	141
Résumé .....	149
Bibliography .....	157