GENDER IN NEOPAGAN AND NATIVE FAITH MOVEMENTS IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

7-9 March 2014
Krakow, Poland

This will be the fifth conference in the Krakow "Neopagan and Native Faith Movements in Poland and CEE" series.

Conference theme: In 2014, we will focus on questions of gender in the Native Faith and Neopagan traditions of Central and Eastern Europe. Gender has been widely discussed in the context of Anglophone Contemporary Paganism (especially Wicca and Pagan Witchcraft), but relatively little has yet been written on the questions of gender in this local context. Topics could include male-only or female-only rites, gender-related initiations and rites of passage, normative paradigms of gender relations within Native Faith, family roles, sexuality, marriage, the acceptance or rejection of LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender) perspectives, and women as leaders in their communities, etc.

Conference language: English
Deadline for abstracts: 4 November 2013
Contact: Scott Simpson, scott.simpson@uj.edu.pl

The 2014 conference will be held at the Faculty of the Humanities of the AGH University of Sciences and Humanities in Krakow, Poland.

Please note that further announcements will be made with more details. We are still currently setting up the conference website.
